

The peacock used to live in the gardens of Wimbledon House, Parkside. Its owner was Sir Henry William Peek (1825-1898), MP for East Surrey from 1868 to 1884. The gardens had originally been designed by Charlotte Marryat who lived there until her death in 1854.